The Nature of Desire. | elephant journal The nature of desire is that it keeps us bound. Desire conjures up a solution to all the problems we think we have and makes false promises of bringing us happiness, contentment, excitement, and wholenessâ€”when we get there. Think of the last time you got what you thought you wanted. Maybe it was a new relationship.

The Nature of Desire â€” Twin Palms Publishers The Nature of Desire Duane Michals â€” Photographers are always looking at things, but they never question the nature of the thing itself. A photograph of a corpse tells me nothing of the metaphysical implications of death, which are ultimately more significant than its appearance.
